Daily Consumption Trend

Notable spikes correlate with major sports events (Feb 19: 46 hrs, Mar peaks)

SECTION 5: LOW-CONSUMPTION SOLUTIONS

Problem Areas & Content Fixes

Monday Blues (118 hrs - lowest day)

- Launch "Monday Night Live Sports" featuring cricket/football
- Schedule music video countdowns (8pm-10pm) for youth
- Premiere new series episodes to create appointment viewing

Evening Slump (6pm-12am = 19% only)

- Program prime-time sports (7pm-10pm) - proven engagement driver
- Add family entertainment blocks to broaden appeal
- Schedule live concerts & events targeting youth demographic

Overnight Hours (12am-6am = 7%)

- Curate international sports from different time zones
- Offer movie marathons for insomniacs
- Low priority - reallocate resources to peak periods

SECTION 6: GROWTH INITIATIVES

Strategy 1: Sports Dominance

Why: 48% of consumption, highest engagement (0.28 hrs/session)

- Secure additional live sports rights (football, rugby, more cricket)
- Create daily sports highlight shows for afternoon slots
- Develop sports analysis programs to fill non-live windows

Strategy 2: Female Audience Capture

Opportunity: 91% untapped market potential

- Add lifestyle & entertainment channels (E! shows promise)
- Program drama series & reality TV in peak afternoon hours

- Launch targeted campaigns to female demographics

Strategy 3: Regional Penetration

Focus: Underserved provinces (Free State, North West, Northern Cape)

- Develop localized content with regional relevance
- Partner with provincial sports teams for local engagement
- Offer regional news & entertainment programming

Strategy 4: Peak Hour Optimization

Leverage: 10am-3pm golden window

- Stack premium content during peak traffic
- Create scheduled live events for appointment viewing
- Maximize advertising revenue during high-traffic periods

Strategy 5: Youth Lock-In

Maintain: 58% consumption from core demographic

- Expand music channels (Channel O, Trace TV performing well)
- Add gaming & esports content for younger viewers
- Develop social media integration for second-screen engagement

Strategy 6: Weekend Maximization

Capitalize: Saturday = 2.5x Monday consumption

- Schedule blockbuster sports events on Sat/Sun
- Create weekend-exclusive content to drive subscriptions
- Launch binge-watching marathons for popular series

KEY TAKEAWAYS

Strong growth momentum: 188% increase Q1 2016

Sports content is king: Drives nearly half of all consumption

Youth demographic locked in: 58% of viewing hours

Geographic concentration: Gauteng & Western Cape = 57%

Untapped opportunities: Female audience, weekday evenings, regional markets

NEXT STEPS

1. Immediate: Strengthen Monday & evening programming with sports/music
2. Short-term: Launch female-targeted content initiatives

3. Medium-term: Expand regional presence and localized content
4. Long-term: Build comprehensive sports portfolio for sustained growth
